“I am fighting on two fronts.
I am fighting against revolution, but for reform”.

Stolypin, 1906

Stolypin's reforms:-

- 1. the annulment of redemption dues (1906)
- 2. a law allowing peasant families to leave the commune (1907)
- 3. a law encouraging peasants to consolidate their holdings of land (1907)

Stolypin's Aims

“I must carry through effective measures of reform, and at the same time I must face revolution, resist it and stop it.”

“As long as the peasant is poor, does not possess individual landed property, and is held in force within the vice of the commune, he will remain a slave.....”
